Patient Advisory Council

Do you have ideas that could help improve the care at Virginia Garcia? Are you interested in being part of a team of patients and staff dedicated to ensuring everyone receives high quality health care?

The Virginia Garcia Patient Advisory Council might be the place for you.

What is the Virginia Garcia Patient Advisory Council?

The Virginia Garcia Patient Advisory Council (PAC) is a way for patients to share their experience as patients of Virginia Garcia and give input about access to health care, programs, and issues that affect our patients and the communities we serve.

What does a Virginia Garcia Patient Advisory Council Member Do?

- Participate in a monthly Patient Council meeting
- Help review policies and materials to improve our services
- Share your experience of Virginia Garcia programs, services, and locations
- Act as a liaison and a voice for the needs of your community
- Tell us what works well and what we can do better
